

FREE TRADE AGREEMENTS

What's in it for Australian University Graduates?

La Trobe Law School, is pleased to invite you to a panel discussion on 'Free Trade Agreements: What's in it for Australian University graduates?'

Australia's trade landscape has recently been populated with some significant free trade agreements including those with China, Japan and Korea. Will these FTAs translate into more employment opportunities for Australian University graduates or increase competition?

Join us on Wednesday 21 September where the former Federal Minister for Trade and Investment, The Hon Andrew Robb AO, the former Federal Member for Wills, The Hon Kelvin Thomson and other experts in international trade share their views on free trade agreements and their implications for Australian University graduates.

Don't miss this opportunity to hear our expert panel address:

- The impact of Australian FTAs on general national employment
- The opportunities opened up for Australian University graduates by FTAs
- The Challenges and Risks for Australian University graduates presented by FTAs
